RODEO

Ballet British Columbia
11 am Friday October 5, 2007

The story, subtitled "The Courting at Burnt Ranch", tells the tale of a tomboyish Cowgirl in search of love. The dusty, ranch pants-wearing Cowgirl, who de Mille admitted was based on herself as a young woman, is a misfit among the men and women in her community. She falls in love with the Head Wrangler, who has eyes only for a real 'lady', the rancher's daughter. On rodeo day, the Champion Roper tries to cheer up the Cowgirl, but she continues to try to win the heart of the Wrangler. Finally, she realizes that she must beat the other girls at their own game, by dressing like a 'lady'. Upon seeing her in a party dress, the Wrangler and the Roper fight for her attention.

JAMBANJA MARIMBA
2 pm Sunday October 21, 2007

With high-spirited rhythms, fiery dance, and enticing melodies, Jambanja Marimba's music is deeply rooted in the rich musical and spiritual legacy of the Shona people of Zimbabwe. Fusing traditional vocals, marimba, mbira, hosho, drum and dance with contemporary acoustic beat and electric bass and guitar, this six-piece ensemble presents an exciting and irresistibly danceable show enjoyed by all ages.
